The National Football League is America's most popular sports league by a landslide, dominating Sundays across the country. The thrill of a perfectly thrown deep ball or a jarring big hit keeps fans on the edges of their seats, and nothing beats the excitement of a live game.

The atmosphere of a live game and a strong football fan community are reasons why so many people across the country choose to live in cities that have NFL teams. Many NFL teams represent America's premier cities, and these places have appealing living options that give fans a dream home base. Let's explore some stunning luxury residences near the home stadiums of the Atlanta Falcons, New England Patriots, New Orleans Saints, New York Jets, and New York Giants.

New England Patriots:

The Parker in Boston, MA

While the New England Patriots play in neighboring Foxborough, there is no question that Boston is Patriots territory. For those seeking a dream home in Boston, The Parker is a stunning condominium that provides 168 units in an immaculately designed glass building overlooking Boston Common. It offers the option of move-in-ready residences in one of Boston's most desirable neighborhoods. Football fans will love the state-of-the-art fitness center designed by Gronk Fitness, owned by Patriots legend Rob Gronkowski. The building has bespoke amenities, including an elegant cue room, a sophisticated lounge, and a velvet media room that can be rented out on Sundays for NFL action.
