

There's nothing better than having your football team play right outside your front door. New England Patriots fans are in luck as we curated the best luxury condo buildings in Boston where they can enjoy top-notch fitness amenities, throw a big game day party, and cheer on their team from the comfort of home, while still hearing the roar of the stadium.

Positioned on the edge of the Boston Common within the city's Theater District, The Parker is a new luxury condominium that offers turnkey residences fully furnished with a custom, limited-edition collection designed by Linda Zarifi.

Residents of the luxurious homes that range from studios to two-bedroom pads, will have access to The Parker's fitness center. This state-of-the-art facility was created by Gronk Fitness, marking the first time the Boston athlete has designed in residential development. With the recently announced Boston Common Master Plan underway to increase the nearby landmark's space for recreation and fitness activities, this luxury condo is a perfect location for athletes and New England Patriots fans.
