Win Big this Super Bowl with Four Unbeatable Screening Rooms

February 1, 2023 by Kennedy Munster

The biggest day in football is waiting just around the corner. As the Eagles and Chiefs prepare for their competition and we're at home planning our Super Bowl viewing parties, the teams and party hosts all have something in common. We all want to win. No matter what team you're rooting for this year, these four condos will have you winning with some of the best, most luxurious private residential screening rooms for an unbeatable viewing party. Fit for the big game, and the commercials of course, let's check out these top-tier suites that will make every day feel like Super Bowl Sunday.

Sit back and relax at The Parker as the Super Bowl suddenly transforms into a movie. Located within Boston's Theater District and reminiscent of downtown's swanky theater spaces and private membership clubs, The Parker has kept its high-end exclusivity with its Velvet Room. The private screening room depicts the classic yet upscale screening room, featuring red cabaret-striped carpet, textured soundproof walls and a series of velvet banquettes.
