

LUX EXPOSÉ

As spring beckons but hasn't yet arrived, luxurious and amenity-rich developments around the world come with all their residents need for total comfort and contentment – no matter how cold it gets outside. These top-tier buildings boast spaces dedicated to wellness and leisure as well as amenities inspired by a private club. Perfect for pool sharks and newbies alike, the billiards rooms are an excellent spot for residents to test their skills on a game table and sharpen their social skills.

Whether residents are looking for friendly competition or an opportunity to socialize, the billiards rooms offer something enjoyable for everyone. Check out our favorite examples below.
